15. Future Board Agenda Items Mr. Terrones reminded the board of the issue with the score board at the football field, the backing is not fully secured and close to falling off. Pricing will be researched to compare the purchase of a new board as opposed to repair. Mr. Terrones has offered to bring security cones to the next football game to minimize any parking close to the score board.

Mr. Terrones asked why it wasn't mandatory to have an ambulance crew at the Middle School football games. Mr. Geringer explained that only CHSAA requires medical personnel at High School games. Next year the school will ask for ambulance services at the Middle School games.
